Raising Resilient Girls

Benjamin Franklin Middle School
335 North Van Dien Avenue
Wednesday, February 10, 2016
7:00-9:00 pm

We invite you to join Girls Leadership's Founder and Executive Director, Simone Marean, for her acclaimed parent education talk "Raising Resilient Girls." As written up in Parent Magazine, Simone's talk focuses on practical, actionable advice that you can use at home to help support the young girl or girls in your life. Her presentation covers the development of girl dynamics from pre-school through high school.

For over ten years, the national non-profit organization, Girls Leadership, has awakened thousands of girls to a new, bold definition of leadership. Co-founded by bestselling author, Rachel Simmons, Girls Leadership believes that leadership is a way of life, which begins in girlhood. We define leadership as a girl's ability to know how she feels, say what she needs, and respond courageously to her mistakes. Girls graduate from our programs more emotionally intelligent, resilient, and confident.

A Window Into Ridgewood High School

Students in Sean Kase's business class make presentations during mid-term exams to a panel of judges on city locations for holding the DECA Nationals.

Students in Karen Mendez's business class use their Chromebooks and paper to take exams during the mid-term testing week.

SATs at Ridgewood High School are Canceled

Due to the inclement weather reports and the impending snow this weekend, it has been decided that the SAT testing previously scheduled to be held tomorrow, January 23, 2016, will be canceled. The testing has been rescheduled.

The SAT will now be held on Saturday, February 20, 2016. All times will remain the same. We would like to thank you for your patience in this matter as severe weather can be a danger to students and test proctors alike.

Ridgewood High School would like to wish you a safe and warm

Ridgewood students enjoy the company of a wellness dog in between mid-term exams. At no cost to the district, several therapy dogs volunteered at the high school during mid-terms this past week to help students feel more at ease during the stressful time of mid-terms. Ridgewood High School has always made strides to help students feel rested and prepared for their examinations. Testing time can be stressful time for students and teachers alike and it is important that there are ways to alleviate those stresses whenever possible.
